

HAVE YOU A TIGER IN YOUR FAMILY?

Search

Please use the form below to search our database of Soldier records.

Surname:

Forename:

Rank:

-- Any --

Army Number:

Keyword:

Search

Reset

NOT FOUND? - ADD AN ENTRY

Do you have the details of a soldier not within our database?

Click here to send us the details

Marston, George Frederick - DCM

Rank : Sergeant

Army Number : 11394

Unit : 7th and 1st Bns

Biography :

Home address given as Leicester. George Marston served in 7th Bn in 110th Brigade during World War One, entering France on 29.7.1915. He was awarded the D.C.M. (L.G. 13.2.1917 "For conspicuous gallantry in action. Single-handed he fought his machine gun with great courage and determination at a critical time under intense fire."). Wounded three times (right thigh, 1916; right hand, 1917 and right hand, 1918). Discharged to the Army Reserve, 2.3.1919.

Some information from a private source.

Date of Birth : 5.11.1894

Place of Birth : Leicester

Date of Death : 26.3.1972

Place of Death : Leicester

Civil Occupation : Shoe Laster

Period of Service : 1914-18

Conflicts : WW1

Places Served : France and Flanders

